

AUCTION OF LIBRARY

There was a large attendance, including many Dublin people, and bidding was brisk at the auction of the Irish library of the late Rev. Patrick Woulfe, P.P., Cappagh, Limerick, conducted by Marsh & Sons, Auctioneers, South Mall, Cork, yesterday.

Deceased, who was a member of the Council of the National Academy of Ireland, had amassed a large and valuable selection.

There were over three hundred lots sold.

The Annals of the Four Masters, in seven volumes, fetched £11 15s.
