Gen. Lee, the papers say, will be sidetracked. This has been the policy from the first. He will do nothing in this war but wear his uniform.

Under our present terrible taxation there will be money enough in the treasury to enable Mr. Hanna to buy another Presidential election, and as many Congressmen as he needs.

The James family is growing less. Jesse departed this life several years ago, and John Henry died at Wood's Crossing, Albemarle county, Va., on Tuesday, 12th inst.

The war has brought no prosperity. Wages are falling, and in the iron trade there never has been greater dullness, notwithstanding this is the period of "blood and iron."

The exact reason why the sheriff of Albemarle, took the local train instead of the fast train to Charlottesville with his prisoner, James, who was lynched tion before the coroner.

Judge Quarles must be regarded as almost certain of election, since the only persons who are willing to sacrifice themselves in the attempt to beat him are Mr. Jacob Yost and Mr. Turner K. Hackman all of this city.

Our farmers, notwithstanding all that has been said about "war prices" will not get over 75 cents for their wheat. Horses are no better price and cattle no higher, than when the war began, whilst pork is not a paying article.

There was naturally some excitement, but the idea of taking the prisoner from the jail or sheriff and lynching him, never was seriously in the minds of the people of this county. Our people have been subjected to the same character of outrage as fell upon Albemarle, but we let the law take its course. We fear mobs even with the most upright intentions, with the most upright intentions, though we admit in this instance the provocation was very great.
